His wife is Lobbyist Brittany Adkins-Herring will be directing his decisions along with her sister, who is a lobbyist, and part of their parents Dennis & Tina Adkins Lobbyist Firm called A and A Advocates www.aa-advocates.com. The opening website statement is that "We have spent years building relationships at the Capital" The Company's expertise on their Website is: "No matter legislative issue, from energy to social services, we understand the policies & politics to determine our clients' fates. We work with clients to navigate challenges as we maneuver to influence government decision-making …..We provide strategic counsel, coalition building, policy research and analysis, legislative tracking, message management and drafting of policy language…Not only do we help our clients with the public-facing issues, we assist with the behind-the-scenes work necessary to build an effective advocacy campaign." Interestingly, Brittany's pic is taken down, showing pic of a building with her contact box. (I'm not sure if this is an ethics issue or not, but to have not one, but 3 Lobbyists in a family is highly questionable) Tyler has worked for 20 years manufacturing/Metal building and quit to run. Wants to protect homeowners from increasing property taxes, secure borders, support strong immigration enforcement, & enforce the law. Wants to protect election integrity with clean voter rolls, voter ID, & secure ballots. There were concerns about dark money-funded flyers being mailed with false information out of DC/Dallas against his Primary opponent Jack Stewart, who was highly conservative to win. CLICK https://nondoc.com/2026/08/04/sd-18-runoff-jack-stewart-tyler-herring-debate-dark-money-lobbying-influence/ CAMP client -Story click
