Cyndi Spoke Against Catholic Charter School Due to their Christian Faith AG Gentner Brought before OK Supreme Court

“The U.S. Constitution & Oklahoma Constitution were upheld today. As stated in both our OK State and U.S. Constitutions, Oklahomans across our state have demanded that public dollars stay in public schools, not religious or private schools. Oklahomans across our state have demanded that religious teaching stay in the home and responsibility of parents, not teachers. Today's decision is a win for taxpayers and religious freedom. Let's get back to work on funding & protecting our public schools.”

MUNSON IS AGAINST THE BIBLE

Cyndi strongly opposed Ryan Walter's decision to use the Bible in "any classroom where the [Oklahoma Academic] Standards apply directly to the Bible,"

“He wants to use millions in public taxpayer dollars to fund religion in public schools — something the majority of Oklahomans are adamantly against — while Oklahoma public schools remain some of the most underfunded public schools in the nation. ... There are major gaps in funding public education in Oklahoma, and yet the State Superintendent continues to abandon the needs of our public school districts to push for policies that do not benefit teachers, students or families,” Munson said.
